BIOGRAPHY

Roger Gnos has been riding the waves of electronic music with his projects since 2005: Mindsurfer (Psytrance), Mode Modular (Psytrance with Goma) and Roger Mills (Techno). He has played at numerous national and international festivals and developed his musical skills with great attention to detail and ambition. Through the intensive use of analogue equipment he creates a unique sound with flowing melodies and strong bass lines. On stage he convinces with unique sets, which are always different according to the mood of the dance floor. Recently he has collaborated and remixed with Jaia, Flowjob, Human Element, Audiodact, Electrynose, Am-bush, Side Effects and many more surprises will appear soon!
